Mark Gray

For over 38 years Mark Gray has been one of the most active and widely used soloists in gospel music. He began traveling full-time at the age of twenty-three in the gospel music ministry. Mark, his wife Mary, travel twelve months a year all across America singing in some 175 churches, youth camps and Bible colleges. Mark is in great demand for gospel concerts, revivals and Bible conferences as well as other special appearances. He and his wife are have been staff members at Silver State Baptist Youth Camp during the last 18 years. The music ministry has allowed him to travel to many foreign countries including trips behind the former “iron curtain.”

During the more than 38 years that Mark has been in full time travel, he has produced more than 50 recordings. Many are made available wherever he sings. Currently he is concentrating on the songwriting aspect of the music ministry. He has seen success with the following songs: “How much is Too Much,” “Is There Not a Cause,” and “It’s All about Him.” Mark is also a part of the Silver State Trio. Mark’s music is carefully selected to always exalt the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and present the Gospel of saving grace to a lost and dying world. Whether singing a new song or an old favorite, Mark always sings with deep conviction.
